

OCCUPATIONAL MEDICINE SERVICES

Our corporate medical directors consultative services include:

- » Actively promoting a culture of health, safety and well-being
- » Leadership in developing a healthier workplace environment
- » Evaluating potential workplace hazards and health risks
- » Assuring compliance with OSHA and other relevant standards
- » Identifying applicable regulatory compliance measures
- » Establishing incident prevention and loss control procedures
- » Establishing occupational health best practices protocols
- » Evaluating environmental data and industrial hygiene
- » Developing health and safety-related SOPs
- » Assessing potential chemical exposures

OCCUPATIONAL MEDICINE SERVICES

- » Establishing and evaluating health surveillance protocols
- » Evaluating biological monitoring measures
- » Analyzing trends and potential health risks
- » Providing toxicology consultations
- » Analyzing potential hazardous substances
- » Evaluating biological monitoring measures
- » Managing health policy
- » Implementing integrated disability management
- » Providing health-related training
- » Assessing workplace medical issues

Our vision is to unite the various stakeholders in workplace health, safety and well-being through value-based strategies focused on your company's most valuable asset: its employees.

 978.998.3167

 stephaniew@quandranths.com

 www.quadrant365.com